In what year was the data upon which this report is based collected? 2022 - 2023

Two of six instructors completed a rubric for each student majoring in Political Science. Rubrics are attached to this report. Instructors shared a summary of those rubrics through a Qualtrics survey that answered the below questions:

1) For which class are you providing information?

2) This year, we agreed to examine this learning outcome: Students will be able to distinguish among various
