Program-Level Assessment: Annual Report

Program Name (no acronyms): PhD in Anatomy Department: Center for Anatomical Science and Education

Degree or Certificate Level: Doctorate Degree College/School:

full, complete learning outcome statements and not just numbers, e.

We assessed learning outcome that "Graduates will be able to will demonstrate competency in the clinically oriented anatomical sciences related to the human body through participation in didactic, small group discussions, interactive laboratories, and performance on written and laboratory examinations. These primary learning outcomes should better prepare the student for successful admission to medical, allied health professional or advanced graduate programs." This assessment focused mainly on the small group discussion component as it relates to Peer instruction and Active Learning.

2. Assessment Methods: Artifacts of Student Learning Which artifacts understanding of the material.

2

B. How specifically have you decided to use these findings to improve teaching and learning in your program? For example, perhaps you've initiated one or more of the following:

Changes to the Curriculum or Pedagogies

- Course content
- Teaching techniques
- Improvements in technology
- Prerequisites

- Course sequence
- •